Dear Art:

After you called tonight I called Braniff and made the following reservations:

Leave Atlanta at 12:55PM via Eastern 278

Arrive St. Louis at 1:23PM

Leave St. Louis at 2:30PM via Braniff 238

Arrive Kansas City at 3:23PM

We could not get a confirmation on a flight from Kansas City to Omaha but you are on the waiting list on all flights out of Kansas City the remainder of the day. Braniff says that your chances are excellent for getting to Omaha on Saturday or evening. In fact Flight 238 will continue on to Omaha and they may get you on it.

I have not cancelled the Friday night flight from Montgomery, but if you are not going to need it I should cancel it by next Tuesday. To do so I should have the receipt that you are holding so that I can get a refund. However, if you won't know until the last minute you should keep the receipt and cancel the reservation

as soon as you definitely know. Be sure to cancel it as soon as you know but don't cancel
it unless you are sure that you can't possibly take the flight.

Love,

Rad

P.S. Please note that you will be leaving from Atlanta - not Montgomery.
